Executive remuneration should be aligned to Company purpose and values, the desired behaviours that underpin them, and responsible risk taking and be clearly linked to the successful delivery of the Company's long-term strategy. Remuneration schemes should promote long-term shareholdings by Executive Directors that support alignment with long-term shareholder interests.
- 3.3 When setting and considering the remuneration policy, the Committee shall:

Bonuses and Incentives

- (a) review and approve the design of all share incentive and bonus plans for approval by the Board and, to the extent required, by the shareholders, ensuring alignment to the Company's risk policies and systems, its purpose and values, support the strategy and promote long-term sustainable success and enhancement of shareholder value. For any such plans, the Committee shall determine each year whether awards will be made, and if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to Executive Directors, Company Secretary and Executive Committee members and the performance targets to be used;
 - (b) monitor and assess any performance conditions applicable to any share incentive or bonus awards granted under any schemes or plans adopted by the Company. Ensure that the performance conditions are fully explained;
 - (c) exercise independent judgement and discretion when authorising outcomes under all incentive and bonus arrangements, taking account of Company and individual performance, and wider circumstances;
 - (d) design and invoke agreed safeguards, for example, clawback or withholding the payment of any sum or share award, to protect against rewards for failure through appropriate risk management of any incentive arrangements to ensure that any performance-related payments reflect actual achievements; and
 - (e) for the purpose of this paragraph 3.8, bonus plans, awards or arrangements shall be interpreted to exclude any plan, award or arrangement applicable outside of the Executive Committee to i) the Group sales team, in respect of sales achieved or ii) Group wide, in respect of know-how generation, which in each case shall not be subject to Committee monitoring and assessment.
